

Please do not allow Indiana's telephone "no call" list or telephone privacy laws to be overturned. Enough sales calls get through me even though I have caller ID and privacy manager services that are supposed to restrict these calls. Allowing banks, etc., to overturn the law will result in more unwanted calls for all citizens.